Profile

Hello, I'm Casper (Ping-Kuan) Lee, a third-year architecture student who is passionate, persistent, and loves taking on new challenges through architecture.

I've explored architecture from various scales and perspectives — from curation and video documentation at the AA Visiting School, to architectural internships in Taiwan and the U.S., gaining both design and practical experience.

Looking ahead, I hope and will keep evolving to broaden my understanding of architecture through diverse cultures and strengthen my skills in design.
